History	Changes within living memory. Objects within the home. Baby Photos - How we have changed Children will start to understand chronology and how to sequence events. They will also start to use phrases relating to the passing of time. They will also have the opportunity to sort historical objects from 'then' and 'now'. They will also be encouraged to ask relevant basic questions about the past as well as understand the key features of events. We will also discuss how we have changed since we were a baby. Links to British Values/SMSC Through this topic children will develop their understanding of how people lived in the past, they will listen to adults sharing their experiences and investigate how homes, schools and toys have changed over the years. They will have opportunities to discuss both personal experiences and changes within their community.	Significant people - Mary Seacole, Mary Anning, Emeline Pankhurst Neil Armstrong, King Charles Children will be able to research people from the past who have changed our lives for the better. They will be able to talk about historical events that have happened in the past and identify some similarities and difference between ways of life in different periods. They will begin to identify different ways to represent the past (e.g. photos, stories, adults talking about the past). Links to British Values/SMSC Through this topic children will develop their understanding of how people lived in the past and how certain historical events are remembered or celebrated today. Children encourage students to accept responsibility for their behaviour, show initiative, and to understand how they can contribute positively to the lives of those	Kings and Queens Royal family Queen Elizabeth II, Elizabeth I, Queen Victoria, Henry VIII Children will understand that we have a queen that rules us and that Britain has had a king or queen for many years. They will find answers to some simple questions about the past from simple sources of information. They will begin to explain differences between past and present in my life and that of other children from a different time in history. They will also understand how succession works and begin to understand the structure of the royal family. Links to British Values/SMSC Children are enabled to acquire a broad general knowledge of and respect for public institutions and services in England. Understand that we have a Queen who rules us but we have a democratically elected government.
