Website Accessibility Statement

Burnham on Crouch Primary School is committed to making its website accessible and easy to use for everyone, including people with disabilities.

This accessibility statement applies to the Burnham on Crouch Primary School website:
www.burnhamprimary.co.uk

How accessible this website is

We aim to make our website as accessible as possible and to ensure that it meets the requirements of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.2 AA standard.

We are aware that some parts of the website may not be fully accessible. We are working to identify and address accessibility issues as they arise.

Some older documents, including PDFs and other documents that were not originally created with accessibility in mind, may not be fully accessible. Where possible, we will provide information in an alternative accessible format if requested.

Feedback and contact information

We are continually working to improve the accessibility of our website.

Please let us know:

- the webpage or information you are trying to access;
- the problem you are experiencing; and
- the format you would prefer the information to be provided in.

We will consider your request and, where reasonably possible, provide the information in an accessible alternative format.

Reporting accessibility problems with this website

We are always looking to improve the accessibility of our website.

If you find any problems that are not listed on this page, or if you believe that we are not meeting accessibility requirements, please contact us using the details above.

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Burnham on Crouch Primary School is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

Compliance status

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.2 AA standard.

We are continuing to review the website and its content and will address accessibility issues where reasonably possible.

Some content may not yet fully meet accessibility requirements, including older documents and content supplied or hosted by third parties. We will seek to improve the accessibility of this content as it is updated or replaced.

Content that is not within the scope of the regulations

Some content may be outside the scope of the accessibility regulations, including certain third-party content or documents that are not under the school's control.

Where information is essential to accessing the school's services, we will provide an accessible alternative where reasonably possible.

Preparation of this accessibility statement

This statement was prepared on 24 September 2026.

It will be reviewed at least annually and whenever significant changes are made to the website.

The website is managed using WordPress.

The school will continue to monitor the accessibility of the website and make improvements where required.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

If you contact us about an accessibility problem and are not satisfied with our response, you can contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS) for advice and support.

You can find information about the EASS on the GOV.UK website.
